

MN Degree Requirements - September 2004

Note: Students admitted to Clinical Nursing field of study of the MN program in 2004/2005 must choose an area of study upon entry. This may include: Health in the Community, Mental Health, Women’s Health, Care of Children, Care of Adults, Care of Older Persons. The MN program requirements listed in this table are effective beginning September 2004. The program requirement is 9 courses.

Fields of Study in the MN Program	NURSING ADMINISTRATION	CLINICAL NURSING					ACUTE CARE NURSE PRACTITIONER
		Health in the Community	Mental Health	Women’s Health	Children and Youth	Adults	Older Persons	Adult Acute Care
			Special Populations
Foundation Courses	NUR1016H NUR1017H NUR1022H NUR1034H
Required Courses	NUR1064H

		NUR1012H	NUR1101H	NUR1102H
Specialty Courses	(3 courses out of the followings) NUR1059H NUR1060H NUR1061H NUR1062H NUR1066H	3 Specialty Courses relevant to field of study from the Faculty of Nursing or other department in consultation with advisor. For example: NUR1033H NUR1039H NUR1040H NUR1043H NUR1047H NUR1048H NUR1067H NUR1068H
Final Clinical Practice	NUR1072Y	NUR1072Y	NUR1109Y NUR1110Y	