

Assisted Dying in Canada – Is Nursing Ready?

Friday, June 10, 2016

Time	Session	Speaker
0900–0915	Welcome
0915–1000	Medical Assistance in Dying: The Essentials of History, Core Concepts and Definition of Terms	Elizabeth Peter Frank Wagner
1000–1100	The Legislative and Regulatory Landscape in Canada and Internationally	Andrea Foti
1100–1200	Medical Assistance in Dying and Nursing – What is the impact on nursing, and our future role.	David Wright
1200–1230	Facilitated Discussion	Elizabeth Peter Frank Wagner
1230–1315	Lunch
1315–1345	The Nursing Leadership Challenge	Jane Merkeley
1345–1430	The Realities and Practice Implications of Medically Assisted Dying on Nursing Practice – Are we ready? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Determining capacity ◆ Dealing with the inevitable ethical conflicts – personal, professional, organizational ◆ The place of conscientious objection 	Frank Wagner TBD Elizabeth Peter
1430–1445	Break
1445–1600	Panel Con'td <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Challenges and controversies for nursing from the perspective of the practicing nurse ◆ Impact on Nurse Practitioner Roles ◆ Interprofessional Team Collaboration and Communication ◆ Evolving competencies for end of life care 	Tieghan Killackey Michelle Acorn Karen Martin Patricia Murphy Kane
1600	Wrap up and Evaluation

bloomberg.nursing.utoronto.ca/pd

updated 2016-03-17

To register online and for more information please visit:

<http://bit.ly/AssistedDying2016>