

Access to Lawrence S. Bloomberg Faculty of Nursing Student, Faculty and/or Employees as Research Subjects

Researchers who wish to conduct research with students, staff and faculty at the Lawrence S. Bloomberg Faculty of Nursing should consult the Office of the Vice President and Provost guidelines and procedures available at: <https://www.provost.utoronto.ca/planning-policy/access-to-faculty-students-staff-for-research-purposes-guidelines/>.

Faculty and employees of the Lawrence S. Bloomberg Faculty of Nursing will not email recruitment materials or study announcements to students, employees and faculty members. Researchers who wish to recruit Faculty of Nursing employees or faculty may make study related announcements or provide recruitment materials via the Lawrence S. Bloomberg Faculty of Nursing Twitter account or Facebook page. Employees and faculty can also be contacted individually via their publicly available email addresses, however they are under no obligation to participate or respond.

For more information on the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FIPPA), please see here: <http://www.fippa.utoronto.ca/home>.